Order Form

Holy Cross Abbey is the only house of women in the UK of the world wide Order of Cistercians of the Strict Observance. Founded in Stapehill, Dorset in 1802 by refugees from the French Revolution. We downsized and moved to Wales in 1991. The Abbey Bakery altar breads are made here at Holy Cross Abbey and posted to parishes, cathedrals, convents, residential homes, chaplaincies and schools all over the UK.

The altar breads we buy-in are made by a family run business Cavanagh Company in Rhode Island established in 1946 and FA Dumont are the UK distributors.

The Gluten Free altar breads are from Charles Farris Ltd in Wiltshire

'As this broken bread, once dispersed over the hills, was brought together and became one loaf, so may thy Church be brought together from the ends of the earth into thy kingdom'

Abbey Bakery Baking since 1991

We are contemplative nuns and the Abbey Bakery is our main source of income.

We bake, cut and pack altar breads which are creamy white with random crosses on one side and plain on the other.

We also sell high quality sealed edge altar breads with a single cross, as well as gluten free square altar breads
